

Message from the CEO & President

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the 22nd Annual Catholic Faith Network Award of Excellence Luncheon. This Awards Luncheon is one of our largest fundraising events of the year, so we welcome with great thanks our returning supporters and those who are new to our ministry.

The Catholic Faith Network is proud to present Bishop William E. Koenig with the Catholic Faith Network Award of Excellence as "Religious Leader" for his continuous support of our station and service to the Church. We are equally proud to honor Carol Higgins Clark with the "Broadcast Media Award" for her support of our station and work as an author and actress. I am also proud to present Steven & Rosa Stella with the "Business Leaders Award" for their exceptional business insight and commitment to excellence. Last but certainly not least, I am honored to present Richard J. Daly with the Lifetime Business Leadership Award for his outstanding business acumen and contributions.

With your support, the Catholic Faith Network is able to continue to provide viewers with religious programming in addition to the daily Mass services and national and global events.

We thank you for your support.

God bless,

Reverend Monsignor James C. Vlaun
CEO/President
